Arts for Learning Massachusetts (AFLMA)

Arts for Learning Massachusetts is a non-profit organization, established in 1962, with a mission to educate, inspire, and empower the youth of Massachusetts through the arts. We believe the arts are an essential component of both formal education and youth development, and are committed to providing youth of all abilities, identities, and backgrounds access to the rich educational opportunities and sense of belonging inherent in arts learning. We established our Expanded Arts Access residencies in 1998 and collaborate with teaching artists, educators, and site partners to implement programs in dance, music, theater, storytelling and visual arts, to: strengthen social-emotional skills, bring curriculum vibrantly to life, promote cultural understanding, and encourage youth to discover their own unique potential through self-expression. artsforlearningma.org AFLMA residencies are thoughtfully designed to be trauma-informed with weekly lessons created based on the unique developmental and experiential needs (physical, social/emotional, academic) of the age group of the students. Each lesson supports an age-appropriate balance of exploration and focus, recognizes and adapts to diverse learning styles, and honors the spirit of playful learning, meaningful interactions, and joyful discovery through empowerment, voice, and choice, helping students to reach important developmental milestones and learning goals.

If you are excited to bring your passion for music education into a dynamic and enriching environment, we encourage you to consider becoming our Elementary School General Music Teaching Artist. Join us as we inspire and guide young learners on their musical journey, nurturing their growth and creativity with the power of music.
